Fleet.

Kelly graduated from the U.S. Naval cally. (Other award winners are listed below.)

Hallal's academic achievements do not stop there. He is being honored with two other awards: the Mewborn Student Research Award, an annual award for thesis work showing the highest scholarship and research ability; and the Naval Sea Systems Command Award for Weapons Systems Engineering Excellence.

Guest speaker will be Adm. Robert J. Kelly, commander in chief, U.S. Pacific

Academy in June 1959, and was a graduate of the Naval Postgraduate School in 1967, earning a master of science degree in aeronautical engineering. His last assignment before assuming duties as CINCPACFLT was as a Deputy Chief of Naval Operations. (Note: The admiral is also a guest speaker at a Navy League dinner in the ballroom tonight. For tickets call 373-7467.)

NPS will graduate 214 students this quarter, awarding four doctorate degrees, two aeronautical and astronautical engineer degrees, one electrical engineer and two mechanical engineer degrees, 177 master of science degrees and 36 master of arts degrees.

Graduates include 143 Navy officers, 14 Army officers, 14 Air Force officers, six Marine Corps officers, six Coast Guard officers, 27 international officers, one civilian from an allied country, two civilians from the Department of Defense and one from the National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Research Lab.

Blue Cross rep visit

A Blue Cross/Blue Shield representative will visit NPS from 1 to 2:30 p.m., Wednesday, June 26.

The representative will assist civilian employees covered by Blue Cross/Blue Shield. For an appointment, call Alesia Mendoza at ext. 3277.

Desert Storm Leave Bank

Public law has established a leave bank for civilian employees who performed active duty during the Persian Gulf War. Open season for donations of accrued annual leave runs through July 13. Civilian employees are invited to donate annual leave to the Desert Storm Reservist Leave Bank. Four NPS/tenant command civilians are eligible to receive leave through the bank.

For more information, call Alesia at ext. 3277.

Another Concert

on the Lawn

Thursday, July 4 at noon in front of Herrmann Hall. Featuring the Monterey Bay Symphony. Bring smiles and picnic baskets.

sports/rec news

Junior tennis clinics

Tennis teaching pro Jack Malokas will offer children's tennis clinics between July 9 and August 15.

Clinics will consist of six 1-hour sessions over two weeks. The focus will be on providing an introduction to the sport in a fun environment.

Cost will be $30 per child. Entry forms are available through the NPS recreation office or at the lighted courts in La Mesa Village.

For more information, call 372-0401 (day) or 384-8459 (night).

Golf tourney

The Central Pacific Sports Conference Mens and Womens Golf Tournament will be played July 18-21 at the Moffett Field course.

Divisions will be set for open male, seniors (over 40) and women. Seniors over 40 may play in an open division.

For sign up or more information, call Gene Newton at 646-2167.

Junior golf program

The NPS Junior Golf Program swings into session this month, with sign ups now being taken at the NPS pro shop.

The program is for young golfers between 8 and 17, and integrates teaching for all levels of ability. The program climaxes with a junior/adult shoot-out tournament in August, with food, prizes and trophies.

Golf professionals Gene Newton and Pete Nilles conduct the program.

Classes begin Wednesday, June 19, with regular Wednesday sessions from 3:30 to 7 p.m. Fee for participation is $35.

Call 646-2167 for more information.

Summer camp registration

Registration continues for the La Mesa Summer Camp '91.

Activities will include swimming, golf lessons, sporting events, fun and fitness, nature walks, arts and crafts, cooking, movie field trips, plenty of friendship and much more.

Cost is $60 a week per child. Children must be between 5 and 12.

Register between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. at the La Mesa Youth Center. For more information, call 646-2127.

Fishing derby

The annual Fort Ord Fishing Derby is scheduled for Saturday, July 13, with age categories competing for trophies and bragging rights.

Registrations are now being taken at the Youth Administration Office at Fort Ord for ages 6-and-under, 7-9, 10-12, 13-15 and 16-through-adult. Final day for registration is July 10.

The Fort Ord permit is waived during the derby. However, licenses are required in the 16-to-adult category.

In a change from previous years, the fish of choice this year will be catfish instead of trout. Blame the drought.
